

The website of UpGrade Project was launched during 2019 with great success, initiating the ReSupportMi e-tool. A platform which assist refugees/migrants and adult educators to utilize the tools of the E.U. in order to integrate in the European Culture and Society.

The website and the platform have been translated in all partners' languages, in Arabic and Farsi too.

Refugees/Migrants could gain knowledge and skills out of the use of the EU Skills Profile Tool.

The EU Skills Profile Tool for Third Country Nationals is a multilingual online editor intending for use by any services that may be offering assistance to citizens of non-EU countries and should be used in an interview situation to get to know the individual, their skills, qualifications and experiences.

Project title: “UP skillinG Refugees And aDult Educators”

Reference number: 2018-1-EL01-KA204-047774

Implementation period: September 2018 – June 2021

Project UPGRADE is an Erasmus+ Key Action 2: Adult Education project, aiming at refugees and migrants in the EU in order to assist them through education and training to integrate in the EU society and labor market.

C1: Training Activity in Athens (joint staff training event)

Greece, October 29 - 31, 2020

University of Piraeus and NGO Organization Earth organized this joint staff-training course for the partners' staff/trainers in order to train them regarding the profits of the ReSupportMi e-tool, the Inter-Cultural Communication and the Cross-Cultural Understanding. The training was held online since 29th to 31st of October and all partners met virtually.

The aim of this 3 days short-term intensive course was to train and prepare the partners' staff (train the trainers) so as to be able to inform/train the target group (adult educators) during the pilot testing. The leaders of each Intellectual Outputs explained the technical specifications, present ways on how to implement, promote and communicate the developed tools. The Multicultural Methodology was detailed analyzed. There were Practice Learning and Testing Feedback presentation and Case Studies discussions.

The deadline for the adult educators' application is 20th of November 2020. The link for the application will be published in each partner Invitation. The invitations will be sent either in English or in their Home Language and then all partners should select at least 10 professionals in each Partner country in order to start the Focus Group Pilot Sessions.

The Focus Groups Pilot Session should be organized either virtually, blended nor with physical presence since the end of February 2021.

The selection of the professionals will be considered according the criteria, which were established the previous months:

- Have University Degree,
- Be an Officer or practitioner working with migrants or refugees,
- Be a school teacher or HE professor interested to develop related competence

The participants/trainees have the opportunity to acquire a certification without a fee, issued by the EACG.

The Final Meeting of the Project has been decided to take place in Cyprus between 18 and 19 of February 2021.

A detailed AGENDA for the event may be found here.
